

BANNER MAKING / T-SHIRT PAINTING

What is this workshop about?

Decide whether you'd like to make a banner as a whole group or make individual t-shirts. This workshop is a chance for young people to be creative and take part in a new activity. As well as being good fun this is also a great chance for spending some time building strong relationships with young people and chatting with them about all sorts of different things such as finding out what is going on in their lives, if they have any worries, what their interests are and what they think about the youth club.

What actually happens in a workshop – Banner Making

Working as a group the young people must plan and create a banner that represents their youth club, group or project. During the session they will make decisions about the content of the banner, consider how to arrange their various designs and actual undertake the work of putting the designs on the banner.

What actually happens in a workshop – T-Shirt Painting

The young people are able to come up with a design for one side of their t-shirts which they will be able to transfer onto their t-shirts using the paints and pens provided.

Are there any limits to the designs?

Whilst the designs are pretty much left up to the young people we work with them to ensure that nothing is placed on a banner or a t-shirt that could be offensive to other people or set a bad example to others. We provide stencils and templates to help ensure everyone can take part whatever their currently level of artistic ability.

Outcomes for young people:

- Learn and develop artistic skills such as painting, using stencils templates (Enjoy and Achieve)
- Develop their individuality within the group environment by expressing themselves in their designs
- Become more confident making decisions and capable of working through the process of coming up with an idea, developing an idea and then creating a finished product (Achieve Economic Well Being)
